NATURE OF THE BUSINESS:

We are the only Turkish-Russian restaurant in the Midwest! We offer traditional Mediterranean flavor through an excellent dining experience.

WHAT IS THE NEWEST TREND IN YOUR BUSINESS?

In a fast pace society with the variety of fast food restaurants to stay true to our word by providing a favorable healthy choice for Americans.

WHAT IS YOUR VISION FOR THE FUTURE?

We will continue to attract new customers by exposing them to healthy, delicious dishes of different ethnic groups.

HOW DID YOU GET INTO THIS BUSINESS?

I opened my first restaurant in Istanbul. I then moved to Manhattan where I spent eight years offering delicious meals at reasonable prices. I was in Cleveland for five years when I met my business partner, Emil Mardakhayev, who worked in the restaurant business in Tel-Aviv with his uncle. Together we opened Antalya Red Square.

WHAT IS THE HARDEST BUSINESS DECISION YOU'VE HAD TO MAKE?

Combining a la carte and banquet-style approaches in one well-run system.

WHAT PERSONAL CONTRIBUTIONS HAVE YOU MADE TO THE JEWISH COMMUNITY?

We sponsor and participate in a "Kosher Taste of Cleveland" and similar events.

Sonmez Bozkurt,
Executive Chef/Co-Owner
